ABOUT JANUS UNBOUND: JOURNAL OF CRITICAL STUDIES

Janus Unbound: Journal of Critical Studies is a double-blind peer-reviewed open access journal, aspiring to occupy a unique niche among journals of critical studies. Published by Memorial University Libraries, Janus Unbound is envisioned as a transdisciplinary platform for scholarly writing and academic research and exchange within the field of World Literature in particular, and Cultural Studies, Philosophy, and the Humanities in general, and a medium of intercommunication for students, teachers, researchers, critics, intellectuals, scholars, and artists all over the world.

Published bi-annually, Janus Unbound offers lively and informative reading for a broad community and focuses on innovative perspectives. Janus Unbound is particularly attracted to works that challenge prevailing views and established ideas and encourages thought-provoking research topics, debate, and criticism. It seeks to foster transdisciplinarity, participate in the ongoing reconfiguration of knowledge, and challenge received conceptual frames and perspectives.

Janus Unbound aims to be a venue for unpublished works, both academic and creative (poetry, art, film), and is a platform for originality, excellence, and talent. It appeals to all those interested in transdisciplinary approaches and is designed for adepts at groundbreaking interpretations, critical provocations, and profound philosophical and theoretical discussions.

CONTRIBUTIONS AND EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE

JU accepts submissions on a rolling basis and publishes reviews, essays, articles, criticism, interviews, notes, commentaries, book reviews, short communications, and short articles. It also welcomes poetry, long, short, or in-between. JU will also be accepting photographs, short videos, and films. Authors are required to submit their work online and to check the status of their submission. If you have any queries, please email the editorial office: info@janusunbound.com.

The editors welcome letters on all subjects, especially if they discuss or comment on the works published in Janus Unbound. Please read our Guidelines for Authors prior to submitting your manuscript.

GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

- All citations and references must conform to Chicago's author/date style (in-text citations). A quick guide to this format can be found here.
- All notes must be formatted as endnotes.
- References must be complete (and include full page ranges for articles, chapters of books, etc.).
- Submit articles or reviews in 12 point, Times New Roman font.
- Double space at time of submission.

CALL FOR PAPERS (THIRD ISSUE)

Janus Unbound: Journal of Critical Studies is pleased to announce a call for papers for 2.1, scheduled for Winter 2022 publication. Deadline for submissions is 15 September 2022.

Janus Unbound is a double-blind peer-reviewed open access journal published bi-annually by Memorial University of Newfoundland, aspiring to occupy a unique niche among journals of critical studies. Janus Unbound is a trans-disciplinary platform for scholarly and creative writing, and academic research and exchange, within the field of World Literature, in particular, and Cultural Studies and the Humanities, in general; we provide a medium of intercommunication for students, teachers, researchers, critics, intellectuals, scholars, and artists all over the world.

The theme for our third issue is:

Displacement, Flight, and Migration

- Displacements of peoples and multitudes, refugees, the stateless.
- Displacement of species, environments, thoughts, and desires.
- Lines of flight, escape, and liberation.
- Movement over settlement, nomadism, dispossession.
- Diaspora, exile.

Non-themed submissions are also welcome.

JU invites original research articles, essays, review articles, long essays, short articles, critical notes, commentaries, short communications, book reviews, and poems, long and short and in-between. JU also welcomes works that address other themes within the fields of World Literature, Cultural Studies, Philosophy, and the Humanities. Our creative writing section is devoted to poetry. Multiple submissions are welcome. JU is particularly interested in poems written in English or translated into English. Poems should be original. We accept short films and videos. We do not consider work that has appeared elsewhere (this includes all websites and personal blogs) or that is being considered for publication elsewhere. Interested parties should send their works to info@janusunbound.com.

JU values excellence and originality. It is particularly attracted to works that challenge prevailing views and established ideas and encourages thought-provoking research topics and debate. Based on “If not now, when?” as a motto, it seeks to foster transdisciplinarity, participate in the ongoing reconfiguration of knowledge, and challenge received conceptual frames and perspectives for the sake of (positive) change.

Why publish with us?

JU:

- is a hospitable venue for excellence and originality;
- has an eminent editorial and advisory board;
- is open access to all researchers and free of charge;
- is proper and fast in the peer-review process;
- indexed in OCLC (WorldCat), Base, Academic Resource Index, Directory of Research Journals Indexing, CiteFactor, Indonesia Onesearch, Neliti, and Google Scholar.

JU looks forward to receiving proposals in response to the call and is happy to respond to inquiries from interested parties.

Sincerely,
Editorial Collective
